

LESLIE HOTEL OCEAN DRIVE SOUTH BEACHFLORIDA

The three-story, 20,000 square foot property, designed in 1937 by Albert Anis, "a dramatic art deco architectural gem,".

In addition to 43 hotel units it has an indoor restaurant-bar and an oceanfront cafe.

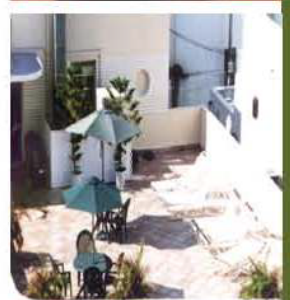

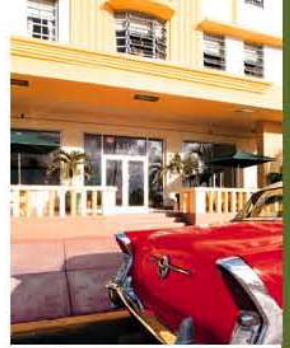

The Leslie hotel is a lively Art Deco hotel located on the world famous Ocean Drive, overlooking the beach.

The Leslie is very popular with the Movie Industry and is featured in films such as "The Bird Cage" & "Ace Ventura, Pet Detective".

The hotel was originally built in 1930's and reopened in 2001 by Urban Group.

Fresh and exciting, the Leslie recently underwent a full renovation making the hotel as vibrant as it was in its popular past.

The Leslie is the perfect place to stay to enjoy all that South Beach has to offer.

MIAMI TODAY: Week of December 27, 2001
Argentine group buys 5th Miami Beach property for hotel group